Muna Finder GameplayEgg Finder is a game version of the obstacle game series that is becoming popular in the world. The rule of the game is very simple and easy to play for anyone of all ages. It requires the player a lot of flexible thoughts to avoid all obstacles and reach your destination. The player must hold or release by touching the screen in a timely manner to control movement and avoid obstacles. If you encounter barriers, release your hands and wait for the right time to pass. At a low level, the distance that the player has to pass only in a straight line and curve. This will help the beginner gain more possession in the game. Low-level barriers are simpler and move in orbit with a base to easily overcome. The player finds the game more complicated than releasing a higher level because of increased difficulty. When a player opens a certain round, they have some useful skins that will help them pass the next round easily because vip skin is fast speed to avoid all obstacles. When an animal game eats all the fruits on the road and achieves a great fruit at the end of the road, funny sound is played, and I really like it. This sound announces that the player has finished the level. In case the animal crash in or touch the obstacles and die, the player just waits 7 minutes or watch a short ad revival. A lot of real-life benefitsOne point I really like about this game is that it brings us all comfort and I can't have a great time with it. Plus, it improves my reflex and agility. It also makes me love animals because all pets in this game absolutely are cuter than in other games. We need to focus on moving or making a decision, not only in the game, but also in life. It's a big advantage that the game brings to us. I absolutely like graphics from Egg Finder.Of course, with excellent and colorful graphics, this simple and sophisticated screen makes the player relish all the challenges Game. Before a few levels, you can watch a short ad to collect a VIP pet and pass through this level easily. On some certain levels, you can go through the challenge and take some gifts such as fruits, eggs and wings. Egg Finder is a paid game in the Play Store, but you can install and play completely for free at the beginning. If you have feedback on the game, please leave a comment below. Odyssey iOS13.5.x Jailbreak Install Coin Master Hack Install the casual game genre has existed for a long time and it has become a phenomenon. Not only the entertainment that it brings, but the gameplay is also very easy to get used to. These include successful games such as Flappy Bird, Crossy Road, Angry Bird, Fruit Ninja, ... Catching this trend, Nox Joy is out of Egg Finder (MOD VIP, unlocked). Since its launch, the game has attracted the attention of players with its colorful graphics, cute pets, and the challenges are getting harder. Egg Finder has only one mission: to take the pet to the finish line and go to a new level. But they don't do it alone because the trapping system is going their way harder and harder. You can say that this funny game is highly addictive from the first level. Table of contents [Show/Hide]Enter the game, tap the screen with one finger to make your pet work. At the next level, there are obstacles in your way. And don't think you're just a quick run going through all these challenges. Your speed can't be improved, so you have to be mindful of finding the rules of traps to get past them and reach the finish line. Don't be fooled into thinking the Egg Findr is only for children. From later levels, especially from level 13, the traps move inconsistently, it is that it can work quickly or slowly. Their movements are increasingly difficult to detect. In addition to ingenuity, this game requires a lot of patience, because just trapped, it returns to the starting line. This very inhibited the music However it requires patience and a little sharp, fast hands, the game does not discourage players. Nox Joy created melodic, soothing songs, ensuring you have a really relaxing playing after stressful hours. It also helps create an atmosphere of psychological comfort for players that they can't be discouraged if they unfortunately lose and return to the starting line. PetsTrue is named after Egg Finder, during the trip you collect cherries, and from there you can buy eggs containing a super cute pet baby from the store. They don't have special abilities, but higher-priced eggs have special effects on the movement. In addition to the collection, you can also choose the pet that is the most beautiful and cutest. In the VIP version, you will get 2 more bonus pets, named Felica and Omelette. Felica, pink pangolin, you have two lives, it is, you have the right to die once, and revive the dead position to continue your journey. And the omelette, the omelette, will gradually gather energy when you overcome the obstacles and when you reach the maximum, it becomes immortal in seconds. That's interesting, isn't it? Both Felica and Omelette seem to randomly offer players one free trial, so you can be sure you'll keep your VIP. VIPSA can also pay to have the VIP version activated. VIP player privileges do not include ads for your 2 special pets. You could pay to support Nox Joy. Because personally, it's really a game worth playing in 2019. VIP mode is now a 3-day trial for players to try and then pay, so you have the right to test before purchasing. Or, if you are having trouble paying FOR VISA or bank cards, use a simpler way that uses our Egg Finder (MOD VIP, Unlocked) version. Endless adventureAfter passing 5 levels, you visit new villages such as Strawberry Village, Snow Village ... Wallpaper Egg Finder also changes according to the village. This leads to more interesting gameplay than simply letting a pet run around in one of the dominant colors. Some of my tips According to my gaming experience, Egg Finder makes it the hardest for players to bend and inconsistencies in motion traps. I would like to give some advice: if you have to go around, you will definitely encounter a trap in the middle, and sometimes trap from both sides. Look closely at their behavior and run quickly when the time is right, because if the opportunity leaves you will probably wait quite a while just to overcome that obstacle. Some traps contain 2-4 running circles, and they are not at the same speed. Which means you can't jump freely when you see a hole. Please wait patiently until the hole is big enough before entering, and keep waiting until a way out appears. That way you can go through that challenge. It's better than hasty and has to start over, then so tired and inhibited. Nobody wants that! Finally, After playing out egg finder, I think it's a very good game. Although the gameplay is not new, creativity graphics, music is captured in the hearts of players (including me). The game is still in development, but I think everyone should play it once. Surely you love super cute baby pets, friendliness graphics and music. Download Egg Finder MOD APK for Android (latest version) version)
